STITCH '78

Major Changes Include New Programs For Degree Completion, Prior Learning

Four major curriculum developments will become effective this fall semester, according to Sr. Andrée Gaspard, academic dean. New offerings include: a Degree Completion Program for Registered Nurses, a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in education, a new combined business-language major, and a formal policy of granting credit for college-level learning received outside a normal educational setting.

The Bachelor of Science in Professional Arts degree is available to men and women who hold a diploma from a recognized 3-year school of nursing and are registered as an R.N. in at least one state of the U.S. To provide a liberal arts component, Stritch will require at least 32 credits in the areas of humanities, communication, and social and behavioral sciences for graduation from the College.

New Majors Noted

A B.A. degree with a major in education will enable future teachers to fulfill requirements both for their field of preparation and for teacher certification in a four-year period.

Board Elects Head

Mr. Delbert W. Peterson was elected chairman of Stritch's Board of Directors at its annual meeting to succeed Mr. Oliver C. Heine, who served for two years.

Peterson is budget manager for Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

SISTER PRESIDENTS — Sr. Camille Kliebhan, OSF, (r.) congratulated Sr. Alice O'Rourke, OP, upon her formal installation as president of Edgewood College, Madison, on Apr. 21.

From the President . . .

Each issue of our quarterly newsletter is planned and published to disseminate good news about the College and its progress. Seldom do we have sad news to report.

At this time, however, I regret to be obliged to call your attention to the recent deaths of Sr. Johanna Flanagan, a Stritch alumna and faculty member, and Mr. Peter McBride, a former Board member and benefactor of the College. May these dear friends and loyal colleagues rest in peace with the Lord!

Because individual persons are so important to the success of our joint mission in higher education, I am pleased to refer you to other articles in this edition recognizing the election of Mr. Del Peterson as Chairman of CSC's Board of Directors, the apostolic efforts of Sr. Doris Pehowski as Director of Campus Ministry, the academic recognition afforded to Sr. Justine Peter through an NEH seminar grant, the teaching awards conferred upon six alumni by the League of Catholic Home and School Associations, and the singular honor paid to my sister, Sr. Joanne Marie Kliebhan, for her leadership as director of the St. Francis Children's Activity and Achievement Center.

Important also are the many alumni-donors and other contributors who gave to the Stritch Annual Fund to support our teaching efforts . . . as well as the dedicated volunteers who participated in our first "Phonothon" appeal for financial assistance. Appreciation is also extended to the people who are working on Stritch's second "Mile of Art Faire" and others involved in the Stritch-Community Children's Theater Company.

In the next issue, I shall comment upon Stritch's new academic programs.

Sister Camille

Latest Curriculum Developments Told

Depending upon the individual's primary emphasis, a combined major of business-language or that of language-business offers the further option of choosing French or Spanish as the foreign language. The program is planned to prepare students for employment in international business, export firms, and the like.

Prior Learning Recognized

As a result of experience with its Venture Program for Returning Adults, the College has adopted a policy of granting credit for prior learning — in keeping with national recommendations by the American Council on Edu-

Annual Reading Parley Scheduled for November

The 30th Annual Reading Conference will be held on campus Sat., Nov. 4, 1978, according to Sr. Marie Colette Roy, Reading Dept. head and general chairperson for the event.

Keynote speakers will be Dr. Robert Pavlik, University of Northern Colorado, and Dr. Lester Butler, Texas Tech University.

Additional details will appear in the Fall issue of Stritch '78.

Summer Enrollments Reported by Registrar

Preliminary summer school registrations for regular and special courses in the Undergraduate, Graduate, and Continuing Studies Divisions total 707, according to Sr. Francis Marie Delany, registrar.

Additional enrollments are expected for the second 3-week session (July 10-28) and short-term workshops in July.

Two new advanced courses — at the post-Master level — attracted relatively large numbers. They were: Workshop for Directors of Reading (June 19-23) and a Seminar on Recent Research and Current Issues in Reading (June 26-30).

First-Hand Experiences Available in Practicums

Karen and Lynette, who are preparing to become dietetic technicians, worked in NML's food service kitchen twice a week last semester to gain practical experience in their field.

Practicums are now featured in a number of CSC's academic departments.

cation and the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation.

In order to qualify, the student must be registered at Stritch before an assessment is made, the prior learning must be related to a present academic program, and verification and documentation must be presented for faculty review and acceptance.

In Memoriam

Sr. Johanna Flanagan, Special Education Dept., died on Monday, June 19, after a brief illness.

Sister joined the College's full-time faculty in 1975 and taught both graduate and undergraduate courses.

A member of the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi for 43 years, Sister Johanna served previously as a teacher of the mentally retarded, principal and school psychologist at St. Coletta Schools in Jefferson, W.I., Longmont, CO., Braintree, MA., and at the Joseph P. Kennedy School in Palos Park, IL.

Mr. Peter D. McBride, Jr., a charter member of the College's Board of Directors from 1970-1975, died on Sat., June 17. McBride was vice-president of Robert W. Baird & Co.

Forty Courses Slated In Graduate Division

Nearly 40 graduate courses in education, psychology, reading, and special education are scheduled for late afternoons and evenings this fall.

Registration will be held daily from Aug. 1-Sept. 6 (noon). Graduate classes begin on Thurs., Sept. 7. A printed schedule is available upon request.

Campus Ministry Stresses Community, Service

The Office of Campus Ministry will begin its third year at Stritch this Fall. Heading the office — which is more of an apostolate than an administrative position — is Sr. Doris Pehowski, OSF. Her office in Duns Scotus and her approach to the position are both personal.

In the past school year, Sister Doris said, the focal point of Campus Ministry was the 9:00 p.m. Tuesday night liturgy, attended regularly by about 50 students.

"This was important," Sister said. "It is in the liturgical community that students talk about their commitment, their sense of ministry, their willingness to be of service, and about the meaning of spiritual values in their lives."

Ministry Creates Climate

"I see campus ministry as creating a climate in which people can grow as persons and grow in relationship with each other. It is oriented around the Christian community, and helps people to grow in their Christian commitment and to find strength in the Christian community," she said.

Building trust and identifying student needs are key roles of the office, Sister Doris said. One of the student needs identified this year was to reach out to the poor. From this need, the meal programs at St. Gall's and St. Benedict's parishes were put on the agenda for willing students. Gradually, according to Sister, volunteer services and services to humanity may involve the students, but it is not the chief aim of the office.

"The office's effectiveness is not easy to measure, or to talk about, because we are not aiming at things — or events," Sister Doris said. "The office is a presence of caring, the presence of the Church and of Christ in human beings. It is difficult to relate that presence to events — because that presence primarily involves relating with others."

Many Students Served

Who does the Office of Campus Ministry serve? Sister Doris said that much contact has been made with resident students and some Venture students. A priority for the coming year is to achieve more contact with the commuter students and to discover their needs.

"There are many problems on our students' minds," she said. "Sometimes they are interested in spiritual values but do not know exactly how to express them or how to talk about them. For instance, some would like prayer to have more influence in their lives and do not know where to begin . . .

History Head Given Summer Study Grant

Sr. Justine Peter, History Dept. head, is attending Rutgers University this summer under a $2,500 seminar grant awarded to her by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Sister Justine is studying "Politics and Religion." Her research project will involve writing on the role of the laity in the English Reformation.

Sister believes that her office is a good focal point for those with questions, and also a logical extension of the "small enough to care" ethic at Stritch.

Sister Doris' background includes several years of high school teaching and guidance counseling. She served as formation director for the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi, was a member of its General Council, and served on the Board of Directors at Stritch from 1970-75. She holds a Master's degree in Religious Education from Loyola University, Chicago, and a Master's degree in guidance and counseling from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

College Bookstore Sells More Than Texts; Teaching Guides, Personal Items Featured

Sales of Curriculum Guides for Teaching the Mentally Retarded have doubled during the past four years, according to Sr. Lucilda Sewald, manager of the College Bookstore. "Purchase of the Journey With Jesus series now represent eight percent of our total volume," she reports.

This shift of emphasis typifies changes in college bookstores across the nation during recent years, Sister says, since the lines of items for sale have tended to move from textbooks alone to school supplies, novelty goods, institutional souvenirs, and "personal products."

Stritch's Bookstore is now a $113,000 business operation, and book sales only represent 64 percent of the yearly transactions. Recently, the most significant selling gains have come in (a) supplies such as looseleaf binders, art paper, etc., and (b) novelties like T-shirts, mugs and jewelry.

In Sister Lucilda's words, "Today's shoppers can find a variety of commodities in Stritch's Bookstore, ranging from paperbacks to pantyhose and from greeting cards to class rings."

"We aim to satisfy the expressed needs and wants of students, faculty, and staff," she states.

Parents Group Hears Math Dept. Members

Dr. James Kasum, Dr. Lynn Olson, and Mary Van Beck, Math Dept. faculty members, addressed the Parents' Association on Wed. eve, May 10, in the second of a series of "Conversations with College Leaders."

Attention was given to Stritch's Math program, utilization of the computer for instruction, and career opportunities for math majors.

Future Plans Told

Parents' Association members agreed to assist the dean of students during next fall's Parent Orientation program and suggested several possible activities for this event.

The group will meet next on Wed., Oct. 18. All parents of full- and part-time students are invited to attend.

Recognition Dinner

Sr. Joanne Marie Kliebhan, director and co-founder of the St. Francis Children's Activity and Achievement Center, was honored at the 28th Annual Meeting and Recognition Dinner of the Wisconsin Society for Brain-Injured Children on Tues., May 23, in Serra Dining Hall.

Sister Joanne Marie was cited for her ten years of leadership and service to the CAAC and her co-authorship of the book "Teaching Reading to Slow and Disabled Readers," with Drs. Samuel Kirk and Janet Lerner.

Dr. Kirk, of the University of Arizona, delivered the principal address. Dr. Lerner also attended as an honored guest.

Orientation Program for Students, Parents Outlined for Opening Week in September

The Fall Orientation Program for all new freshmen and transfer students will be held on Mon. and Tues., Sept. 4-5, according to Marianne Buenzli, dean of students. Also, on Sept. 4 (Labor Day), a special one-day orientation is planned for parents, and Clare Hall will be opened to resident students for occupancy.

Gold, Silver Keys

At the 1978 Commencement, Stritch awarded special honors to two graduates in the form of Gold and Silver Keys — for highest academic achievement.

In the four-year Baccalaureate degree program, Laurel Ann Le Beck earned the Gold Key. In the two-year Associate of Arts degree program, Karen Reimer received the Silver Key.

Monday's activities for students and parents, respectively, call for a welcome by Sister Camille, presentations on academic information, student services, and career counseling, and small group discussions. A get-acquainted picnic will follow at 4:00 p.m.

Tuesday Schedule Told

The next day, all new students will complete the American Council on Education Survey and an Admissions Office questionnaire and transferees will take the English Proficiency Test. Also scheduled are a film-discussion, commuters presentation, and social gathering.

New students will register for class on Wednesday morning. Classes begin on Thurs., Sept. 7.

Venture Grants

A number of tuition remission grants worth $100 and $200 will be awarded to Venture Program students enrolled for at least six credits per semester. The deadline for fall applications is Tues., Aug. 1. Applicants must be admitted and matriculated before the deadline.

Applications are available in Stritch's Venture and Financial Aid Offices.

1978 PHONOTHON

After three nights of calling Milwaukee area alumni between 7:00-9:00, the Alumni Association's Phonothon team raised some $1,100 from nearly 90 CSC graduates in its first telephone campaign for the Stritch Annual Fund.

The results mean: (a) donations averaged more than $12.00 per person; (b) many respondents were first-time contributors; (c) personal calls netted gift income at a rate of $3.00 per minute; and (d) scores of individuals were contacted directly by the College using means other than the U.S. mail service.

Volunteers involved in the Phonothon project included: Geri Giannotta and Sr. Kathryn Dean Strandell, co-chairpersons; Sr. Justine Peter, alumni coordinator; Carolyn Stephens, community relations director; and Marilyn Callan, Eileen Hayes Conklin, Sharon Landergott Durtka, Richard Gonzalez, Maureen Mahar Konley, Helen Ertle Philbert, Cathy King Smith, and Meg Regner.
